(c) the reasons for seeking such information by the vigilance department of NCCF;

(d) whether the vigilance department is to keep watchful eyes on the staff working in the organization or to keep watch of the suppliers; and

(e) the reaction of the Government to such sort of activities of the vigilance department.

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (SHRI V. SREEI PRASAD)

(a), (b) & (c): With a view to completing the investigation in certain cases of supplies of goods by certain suppliers, NCCF has requested the Kendriya Bhandar to supply some information in respect of these suppliers, the details of which cannot be disclosed in public interest.

(d): Apart from keeping watchful eyes on NCCF Staff, the Vigilance Department may also keep watch on the activities/performances of the suppliers.

(e): In the interest of the organisation, the Vigilance Department of NCCF can interact with other organisation to obtain information for cross checking/verification.
